Soviet Buildup in Cuba Is Continuing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union has placed four heavily armed combat groups in Cuba and Soviet pilots there are flying MIG fighters capable of carrying nuclear weapons, says Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

The continued presence of Soviet armed forces on the island is a matter of real concern to the United States, Rusk said Sunday night. But he heeded to the administration line that the Red forces essentially are defensive in nature.

The best U.S. intelligence guess, Rusk said in a radio and television interview is that there are no nuclear warheads in Cuba. He added, We have had some indication from the Soviet Union that at least portions of the combat forces and missiles will be removed in due course.

Rusk gave no hint that there is any U.S. deadline for Soviet troop removal from Cuba. He said there has been some out-traffic in recent weeks and declared: It must be our policy that penetration of this hemisphere by a Communist regime from outside is unacceptable to this hemisphere.

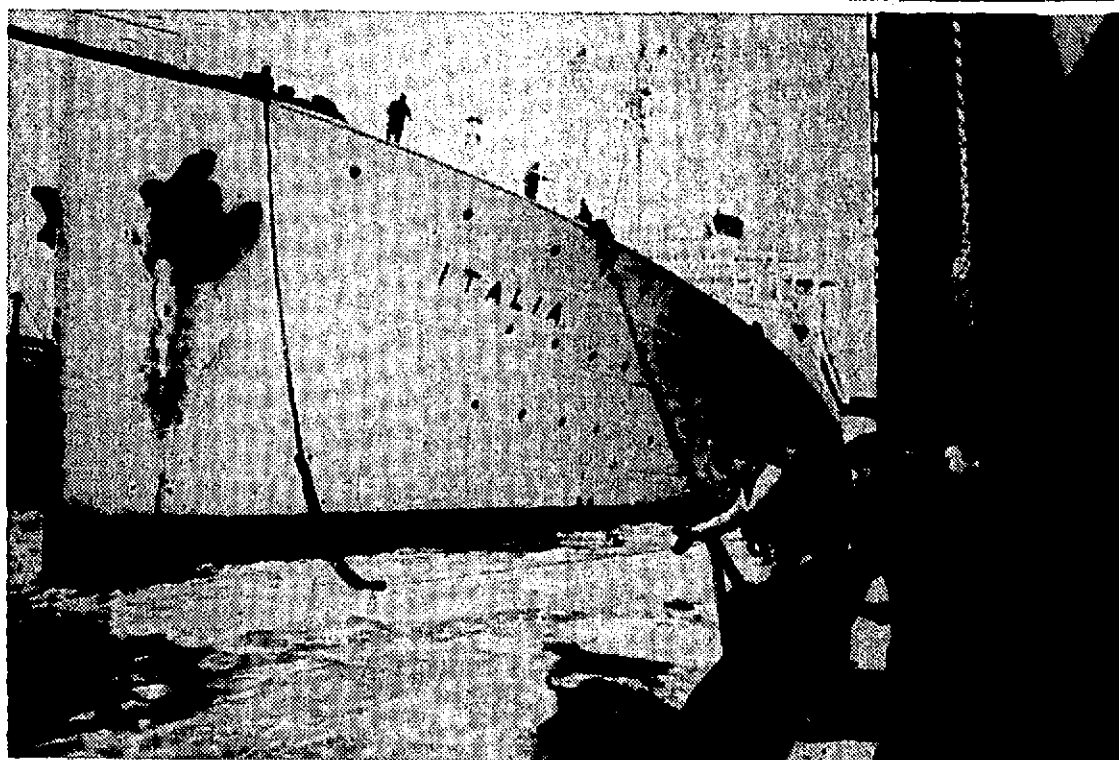

MIG fighters have been entering Cuba for many months, Rusk said. He also confirmed reports that Soviet pilots are training Cubans to fly them.

Commenting on the Soviet combat groups on the island, Rusk described them as relatively small but, nonetheless, a matter of some real concern.

Several Congress members, primarily Republicans, contend Soviet military power in Cuba is increasing dangerously. The situation was the subject of a Senate inquiry last week and another Senate probe will be held shortly.

Rusk is to testify today on Soviet military activity in Cuba before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Over the weekend an intelligence summary circulated among top U.S. officials reported that since last fall's crisis only one Soviet ship has put in at a Cuban port with a significant amount on military equipment.

Pledge Is Carried Out

Dean Murphy is shown rendering the services which he pledged to the highest bidder during the local Lion Club Christmas Auction. The members of the Garrett Memorial Baptist Church brought the services which included breakfast cooked to order, by Mr. Murphy, dinner at the Plaza Restaurant, and an evening of bowling fun at the Gasline Bowl, for their pastor and his wife, the Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Johnson. Mr. Murphy also presented Mrs. Johnson with an orchid corsage, and Mr. Johnson with an executive planner.

Station Is Praised for Helping Hand

The following is a copy of a letter received by Radio Station KXAR praising the station for its efforts in helping a family which was burned out:

"This letter comes to express to you, the management and personnel of Radio Station KXAR, our deep and sincere appreciation for the outstanding humanitarian acts and services you rendered in behalf of the J. T. Bradford family whose house and furnishings were destroyed by fire.

"The response by the citizens of Hope to your appeal was voluminous and sufficient. Approximately 200 responses were called in. This is one way in which the citizens of Hope showed their care and concern for members of our community who had suffered a misfortune. Thanks to the citizens of Hope for their generosity. We are blessed to live in a community where the management and facilities of the radio and press, and the individual citizens actually do the part of a Good Samaritan toward their fellowman.

Gratefully yours,

Polio Vaccine Program for Hope Feb. 3

At a recent meeting the Hempstead County Medical Society voted to go ahead with the oral polio vaccine program here on Sunday, March 3 at the Hempstead Center.

Dr. James W. Branch is chairman of the vaccine program. Only types 1 and 2 of the vaccine will be given. Details will be announced.

Former Resident of Hope Dies at Camden

Mrs. Maggie Taylor, aged 85, died Sunday, at Camden Hospital. She was formerly of Hope.

She is survived by two sons, Walker Taylor, Bloomington, Ill. and R. L. Taylor, Gardena, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. Dewey Boles, Ypsilanti, Michigan, and Mrs. Mary Foster, Camden.

Services will be held Tuesday, at 2:30 p.m. in the Herndon-Cornelius Chapel. Rev. Rufus Sorrells assisted by Elder Novell McAttee will hold the services. The burial will be at Rose Hill Cemetery. Herndon-Cornelius will be in charge.

Grubbs School Damaged by Fire

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Some 700 students at Grubbs High School, which was heavily damaged by fire last Friday night, will resume classes at the school 18 miles east of here today.

Rufus King, president of the Grubbs school board, said the gymnasium, a home economics building and agriculture building—which were not damaged—would be utilized as classrooms. The fire caused about $75,000 damage, part of which was covered on the same date last year.

An attempt was to be made at the school today to determine the number of textbooks lost in the low last night (Sunday) was, he said. Six classrooms, 10 degrees and there is a change for a warming trend today in this vicinity.

West Germans Hold Fate of Common Market

By TOM OCHILTREE

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The long British struggle to enter the European Common Market rested precariously today in the hands of the West Germans. They reportedly planned to suggest a compromise that would postpone the decision.

The ministers of the six market nations were gathered here to decide whether it is worth continuing the 16-month-old talks on Britain's entry in view of French President Charles de Gaulle's stubborn opposition.

A West German source reported his government would propose passing the problem to the market's executive commission. The commission would report its recommendations in two or three weeks.

The nine-member commission would attempt to establish whether it is technically possible to bring Britain into the European Economic Community and whether its membership would work, as De Gaulle claims, to the disadvantage of the present members—France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg. For membership, Britain needs the unanimous approval of all six.

West German Economic Minister Ludwig Erhard told newsmen the future of Europe as well as West German-French relations were at stake.

The situation is extraordinarily grave," Erhard said, "the whole situation has serious political consequences."

Erhard is the leading candidate to succeed West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer if the aged chancellor retires this fall. Of the six EEC members, only France is opposed to British membership. West Germany is second only to France in importance in Common Market and European affairs.

European unity and close French-German relations are two of Adenauer's chief goals. The split over the British application threatened both the former aim and the French-West German alliance which Adenauer and De Gaulle embodied in a treaty of diplomatic, military and cultural relations they signed last week.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk said in a television interview in Washington that the United States hopes Adenauer will not have to choose between these two great objectives.

The United States, Rusk said, has no choice but to continue its policy of pressing for a unified European community.

Bishop to Quit Making Own Wine

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Bishop St. Psalm, Negro spiritualist who meditated in a coffin, said Sunday he is going to start buying his holy wine" instead of making it in the church coffee urn. He said the Lord told him to do that.

The self-ordained bishop, whose real name is Bernard Wain, thus called off his battle with Nashville police and the courts. The police had said not holy wine," but moonshine. The judge said $50.

The 6-foot-4, 240-pound man placed himself in the coffin following the court fine, for fasting and meditation to determine if he should continue his wine making.

Suffocation Takes the Lives of Two

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Negro infant was found dead of suffocation in his home near Marked Tree Sunday, putting the violent death toll for the state at 16 for the week ended midnight Sunday.

It was the second suffocation of the week. Johnnie B. Dodson, the infant, died of accidental suffocation, Police Chief Glen Phillips of Marked Tree said.

Mrs. Willie Dodson, the mother, found the child at their home two miles east of Marked Tree, Phillips said.

Sheriff Hugh Black of Benton County said Johnny Buttry, 55, of Pea Ridge, suffocated while burning trash on a farm near Pea Ridge.

Black said Buttry, a businessman, and Herbert Stroud were burning trash last Friday when Buttry fell into the fire. It was thought at first that he died of a heart attack, but attending physicians at a hospital at Rogers said cause of death was suffocation.

Two persons were killed on icy highways in the state over the weekend. Carl Page, 37, of Batesville, was killed when his car went out of control on U.S. Highway 67 one mile north of Newport Saturday.

A Dermott woman was killed earlier Saturday when her car overturned one-quarter mile east of Dermott and pinned her beneath it.

Also during the week, two other persons died in traffic collisions, one died of exposure, two were killed in fires, two were shot to death, two asphyxiated, one was electrocuted, one drowned and one died of injuries received when a tree fell on him.

Fire Damages Carport Here

Early last night a combination carport and storage room was damaged by fire at the home of Corbin Foster, on Park Drive. Firemen figure the blaze started from an extension cord being used to keep a dog warm in the storeroom. Although considerably damaged the structure was not a total loss, firemen said.

All Around Town

By The Star Staff

Ice and snow took its toll over the weekend practically paralyzing the entire country. Travel was almost impossible but some folks tried it anyway. There were dozens and dozens of autos that slipped off the road but apparently the accidents weren't serious. Perhaps the most serious one resulted out on Highway 67 East near the Highway 4 intersection involving trucks driven by Hugh Farrell and Mack E. Jones and a car driven by Tolbert R. Burnett. Nobody was hurt and damage was moderate.

Dr. and Mrs. Jim McKenzie were victims of the viaduct at Fulton Friday. Neither were injured, both used seat belts, but the auto hit some ice and overturned but nobody was hurt. There the auto was badly damaged.

It seems people were the worst. Mrs. I. E. Odum fell at her home in Fulton and had to be hospitalized. Mrs. W. E. White fractured her ankle. Chester Lester slipped and cut the back of his head. Mrs. Hinton Davis also suffered a head injury.

While Martin Pool Sr. and the Rev. Rufus Sorrells both suffered broken arms in falls and Charlie Walker sustained a hip injury. The low last night (Sunday) was, he said. Six classrooms, 10 degrees and there is a change for a warming trend today in this vicinity.

Valley Industries Realize Profit

DARDANELLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas Valley Industries had net earnings of $527,616 during the nine months ended Dec. 29, the company announced.

Sales during the period were $42,959,348. A two per cent stock dividend payable March 5 to stockholders of record Feb. 15 was declared.

Net earnings for the nine months equal $2.01 a share on the 263,122.5 shares outstanding at the end of the period.

During the corresponding period a year ago, the company had sales of $28,121,195, and a net loss of $102,655, the equivalent of 70 cents a share on the stock outstanding Dec. 29, 1962.

Legislature Meets Again, Calm Prevails

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The second week of the 64th General Assembly is history—and the calm which has characterized the delegation is still with it.

There may be a dispute upcoming on one problem, however—that of school consolidation.

Most legislators recognize the need for consolidation but most are shying away—as has Gov. Orval Faubus—from any action which might put financial or other pressure on small districts.

There is general agreement on a proposal to set up county school reorganization commissions to make district by district studies of school deficiencies and show the way to consolidation by showing how a school program could be improved.

But some legislators, especially those from heavily populated areas, are impatient with those small districts which rely principally on money obtained from the state to keep their school plants running.

Sen. Joe Lee Anderson of Helena has introduced a measure which would deal a direct blow to such districts. It would cut off state aid to any district which fails to collect 30 mills in local school taxes.

A harsher blow is aimed in a bill introduced earlier in the session by Pulaski Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr. His measure would eliminate the financial advantage districts now get from the state aid formula.

Through the first two weeks the House received 168 bills and the Senate 80. Introductions are expected to remain heavy in both houses for the next two weeks.

Legislative sentiment appeared to be shaping up for another try at getting voter approval of a constitutional amendment to permit increasing the salaries of constitutional officers.

Referral of another amendment giving cities and counties additional taxing power apparently was assured with Faubus' backing.

The legislature can refer only three proposed amendments. The House already has 17 and the Senate 7. Some are duplicated.

A decision on amendments does not come until the closing days of the session.

Some interesting by-play is expected during the coming weeks when the wet and dry forces tangle for their biennial battle.

A bill by Pulaski Rep. J. H. Cottrell Jr. would make possession of liquor in a dry county illegal. The drys have prepared an amendment to Cottrell's bill to outlaw the sale of liquor to any resident of a dry county, even though the sale may be made in a wet county.

Final Rites for Cecil Wyatt

Funeral services for Cecil Wyatt, aged 50, Hope native and former cattleman, station operator here, were held at 11 a.m. Monday at Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home. Burial was in Memory Gardens. The Rev. Troy Carroll of Murrefreesboro officiated.

Mr. Wyatt died Friday, Jan. 25, while working as manager of the Pike County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Princess Waddle Wyatt.

Plant to Open

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—The Harrison Bag Co. Inc., a subsidiary of Burk Bag Co. of Springfield, Mo., will begin operations here Friday. The plant, which is 2,500-square feet of floor space, will specialize in repair of bur-lap and canvas feed bags.

Cold Plagues Practically All of U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Snowstorms and unseasonably cold plagued broad sections of the nation again today after a week-end of wild weather in northeast sections.

A blustery snowstorm which hammered New York State and New England over the weekend tapered off after dumping up to 18 inches of snow in some areas.

The storm swept into the lower Great Lakes region and along the western slopes of the Appalachians. Heavy snow fell in some areas and strong, westerly winds caused considerable blowing and drifting.

No immediate break in the prolonged spell of cold weather was in sight. The number of weather-related deaths since last midweek rose to 162.

It was below zero again this morning in most of the upper Great Lakes region, the Ohio Valley and westward across the northern plains. The core of the arctic air was over the Mississippi Valley from St. Louis to Duluth, Minn.

Among the coldest spots were Moline, Ill., and Lone Rock, Wis., with 24 below zero. It was the lowest temperature in Moline since Feb. 13, 1905.

Rochester, Minn., reported its 17th consecutive day of below zero readings, a record. Des Moines has had 16 straight days of subzero cold. It was -9 in Louisville, Ky., and the -13 in Chicago beat the record low of -11 for Jan. 28 set in 1885. Evansville, in southern Indiana, reported -5, a record for the date.

The icy air dipped deep into the Southland. It was near zero in parts of Tennessee and readings in the teens chilled central sections of Alabama and Georgia.

Near freezing was reported in northern Florida, with the low 30s reported along the Gulf Coast and up to the 60s in extreme southern Florida. Miami's 66 followed Sunday's high of 95, a record maximum for Jan. 27.

With temperatures near zero, most of the 25,000 residents of Sedalia, Mo., were without heat after natural gas service failed Sunday night.

The snowstorm which hit the Northeast left eight inches of snow in Pittsburgh and from four to six inches in Philadelphia and suburbs.

Deaths related to the two snow storms in New York State since last Friday numbered 16.

IRS Plans to Assist Hope Taxpayers

Hope has been selected as one of the cities where the Internal Revenue Service will send a representative to assist taxpayers.

The IRS Representative will be in Post Office, Room 214, on February 12 from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and will have forms available and will answer questions on problems or explain requirements of the income tax law. This taxpayer assistance period is an extension of the service which has been given for several years in cities where the Internal Revenue Service has established offices.

Individuals should isolate their questions if possible before contacting the Internal Revenue Service representative. The purpose of the period is not for the Internal Revenue Service to assume the responsibility of preparing the return for the individual but to answer specific questions.

New Engineer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Col. E. B. Downing of Stuttgart will be succeeded Feb. 4 by Col. Philip J. Galanti as secretary of the Mississippi River Commission and deputy division engineer for the Army Engineers. Downing will retire Jan. 31, but Galanti will not take over his new post until the later date. Downing has 30 years of service.

Mrs. Stewart Host to Friday Music Club

The Friday Music Club meeting January 25 was in the home of Mrs. E. H. Stewart. Hostesses were Mrs. Charles Batson and Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr. As the guests arrived, they were served a dessert plate and coffee from a table overlaid with a white cut-work cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow gladioli and a yellow candles.

After the Club Collect had been repeated in unison, the president, Mrs. Arch Wylie, had charge of a business meeting. During it, tentative plans were made for a Musical Tea in February. The Hymn of the Month, "All Beautiful the March of Days," was discussed briefly by Miss Mary Anita Laseker. Then, all joined in singing it, accompanied by Mrs. B. C. Hyatt. The program was entitled "Some Romantic and Nationalistic Composers." Mrs. Haskell Jones gave some interesting highlights of romantic composers Beethoven, Schumann, Schubert, and Mendelssohn and of nationalistic composers Chopin, Dvorak, Grieg, Rimski-Korsakov, and Sibelius. During the latter part of her talk, "Flight of the Bumblebee" was heard softly in the background.

Several lovely performances illustrated the program. Mrs. Ralph Emerson and Mrs. Thomas E. Hays, Jr. sang "I Waited for the Lord" by Mendelssohn, accompanied by Mrs. George Frazier. Mrs. Frazier played "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn as a piano solo. Mrs. Clarence Geist sang "Lotus Flower" by Schumann, accompanied by Mrs. Jewel Moore, Jr. Mrs. Moore played a piano solo, "Polonaise in A Major" by Chopin, and Mrs. Geist concluded with "Be Still My Soul" by Sibelius.

Left More Than Prize Paintings

EAGLE BRIDGE, N.M. (AP) — When Grandma Moses died more than a year ago, she left behind more than her prized paintings and a still brush. Her heritage may well include a painting dynasty.

The world of art regarded Grandma Moses — Anna Mary Robertson Moses — as one of the nation's most renowned primitive style painters when she died in Eagle Bridge on Dec. 13, 1961 at the age of 101.

Now there is a Grandma Moses on the American scene. He is Forrest King Moses and a painter apparently cut from the same canvas as his mother.

Moses will be 70 on his next birthday and has 14 grandchildren. He was a painter long before his mother's death, quite unlike Grandma Moses who took up painting only in the sunset of her life.

But Moses was determined not to benefit from his mother's success. Many of his paintings bear the name "Forrest King" and there are those who still are unaware of his connection with Grandma Moses.

Like those of his mother, most of the Grandma Moses paintings have a certain sprightliness of subject matter and color. He chooses for subjects those rural scenes from what has come to be recognized as Grandma Moses country.

Though she took to it late in life, painting is a tradition in Grandma Moses' family. The talent extends to Grandpa Moses' grandchildren, so much so that the Grandma Moses shadow may extend over American art for years to come.

Tests Was Costly in Every Way

LANCASTER, Calif. (AP) — Police say Frank L. McWethy demanded that his own doctor give him the drunkenness test.

The officers obliged. The doctor certified that McWethy was intoxicated and officers booked the 44-year-old Lancaster man on suspicion of drunken driving.

The doctor charged McWethy $10 for the test, police said.

Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Ross

The McCaskill Church of Christ was the scene of an impressive ceremony, Saturday, January 12, 1963, at 7 p.m., which united in marriage Miss Brenda Jester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jester, and John Allen Ross, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ross all of McCaskill.

Harley Sisson of Jonesboro, Louisiana, affiliated at the double ring ceremony amidst arrangements of lily and pink roses framed by greenery flanking the altar. Candelabra with burning white tapers lent a mutual reverence to the occasion.

Candles were lighted by Earlene Jester, sister of the bride, and Randy Ross, brother of the groom. Earlene wore a yellow brocade suit with silver shoes. Her corsage was feathered white carnations.

Wedding songs by the Harding College were provided for the exchange of vows. Mrs. Bill Shultz of Blevins, sang, "Always" and "I Love You Truly."

Approaching the altar on the arm of her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of Alencon lace over slipper satin. The fitted bodice with a low round neckline had long sleeves that ended in lilly points over her hands. The white length skirt was accented by a pearl white satin bustle bow at waist in the back. Her only jewelry was a tiny pearl on silver chain, gift of the groom. Her finger tip veil of illusion was attached to a seed pearl sequin tiara and she carried a white keepsake Bible of the groom topped with a sweetheart roses feathered carnations, with white satin streamers tied in love knots centered with a pink orchid.

Miss Jester was attended by her cousin, Deaunta Stone, wearing a blue brocade sheath dress with silver shoes, and pinned a corsage of feathered white carnations. From a crystal bowl punch was served with a three tiered wedding cake embossed with tiny rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

For a going away dress, the bride chose a beige and white ensemble and pinned the orchid from her bouquet to her shoulder. The couple will be at home on the Branch of University of Arkansas Experiment Station where Mr. Ross is employed and Mrs. Ross is employed by Corn Bell Hatcheries of Hope.

Husband Covets Wives Pay Check

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Ever since I went back to work seven months ago my husband has been after me to give him my pay check. When I refuse he sulks.

After all, I hold down two jobs, one at home, the other at the office. I get no pay, much less thanks, for the former and it involves more work: Up at six every morning, dress baby and myself, tidy the house, start breakfast and organize the day's schedule for our baby sitter (an elderly neighbor) who comes at 8:30 and stays till I return at 5:30. By night I'm worn out but there is still dinner to prepare and baby to put to bed.

Weekends, instead of taking a holiday, I clean house, catch up with mending and care for our baby. I pay my own medical expenses; oculist, and dentist bills, buy baby's clothes and mine and, if there's a cent left, bank it in a savings account.

Last evening my husband came across with a new attack on my poor little overworked salary: Use it to pay half the living expenses! Am I wrong in refusing my husband's request? Should I hand over half my salary to him after deducting the baby sitter's pay? —Harassed Wife

Dear Harassed: Circumstances govern the situation. The deciding factor in your case should be whatever is in the best interests of the family. You and your husband ought to work for the common good of all concerned: You, he and your child.

It is his duty to support his family, provide he is capable physically and mentally of doing so. But, if for any reason he is unable to carry the full expense and if you too, are earning money, it is your duty to help.

On the other hand, if he is a penny-pincher, or spendthrift hang on to what you earn.

Like most marital issues, this calls for mutual adjustment. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, Successful Marriage."

Dear Helen: My various romances always end sorrowfully, either for the girl or myself. Each time I say, "Never again!" but being an impulsive, out-going guy, this resolution is so much baloney. My last steady two-times and her peridy cut deep. Now I've fallen for another girl but am afraid to let myself go and risk being hurt again. —Unhappy, Battle Ground, Wash.

Dear Unhappy: Don't let anything: love, business or health, spoil your zest for living. If you love this new girl, don't be afraid to tell her so.

Hendrix Team Wins

WARRENSBURG, Mo. (AP) — Swimmers from Hendrix College at Conway, Ark., won a three-team meet here Saturday with 63 1/2 points. Kansas State Teachers of Emporia had 60 and Central Missouri State College of S. But, if for any reason he is

Farmer Treated for Exposure

NASHVILLE, Ark. (AP) — An 81-year-old Howard County farmer was being treated today at a Nashville hospital for frostbite and severe exposure suffered Saturday night while he was lost in Pike County.

Doctors said there was a possibility they would have to amputate the toes of Joe Golden, who wasn't found until Sunday morning. Temperatures during the night dropped as low as three degrees above zero.

Earl Golden said his father and his brother, B. C. Golden, were stranded on a country road between New Hope and Langley Saturday night after their truck broke down.

B. C. Golden lighted a fire for his father, and went to seek help. Earl Golden said his father apparently took off his shoes to warm his toes, and wandered away shoeless after the fire died down.

New Weather Records Set in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Another record low temperature was set in Arkansas early today and the cold wave still wasn't losing its grip.

Temperatures were expected to climb to just above the freezing mark in part of south Arkansas today, but the U.S. Weather Bureau in Little Rock said the weather would turn colder over the state again Tuesday.

A record low of eight degrees was set in Little Rock early today. The old record was 12, set in 1948.

Occasional light sleet and snow were forecast for the north part of the state tonight. Occasional light sleet and light freezing rain or drizzle were predicted for the south part of the state tonight, and it was expected to change to light snow flurries. They were expected to end Tuesday morning.

Low temperatures tonight were expected to be around five in the northwest to near 30 in the southeast.

Temperatures ranged to near zero in parts of north Arkansas today. Fayetteville had a one-degree reading. Harrison and Walnut Ridge each reported three degrees.

The Little Rock reading is the official one for the state.

Highways were generally clear in the state today but spots of ice were reported in a few places.

Crossett to Talk Over Petition

CROSSETT, Ark. (AP) — A petition seeking to incorporate an area in northern Crossett will be discussed at a meeting here Thursday night.

Residents of the area voted 646 to 24 against the proposal in a special election last December. Ashley County Judge W. T. Higginbotham, who called the election, said he would use results of it as a guide to his future actions on the petition.

Things You Learn From Opening Mail

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

You may be showing your own ignorance if you call a girl a dumb blonde. In an IQ test of over 5,000 women, natural blondes scored slightly better than brunettes or redheads.

How many calories do you need a day? One rule of thumb: 20 times your desirable weight. That is, if your doctor says your ideal weight should be 150 pounds, your diet in calories should be 20 times that—or 3,000.

Untold story: Robert E. Lee, Confederate military leader, never wrote his memoirs and, according to a historian, never read a book about the Civil War in which he played so notable a role.

Sudsy cash: In Mexico in 1841, you could wash with money. Metal was so scarce that bars of soap were stamped with the mint seal and circulated as currency. Each bar was worth about 1 1/2 cents.

Gas Service at Spa Restored

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gas service was restored this morning to some 200 customers at Hot Springs who had shivered through 19 hours without gas in their homes.

An Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. crew of 17 men worked throughout the night in temperatures that dropped as low as seven degrees to restore service.

Gas was cut off around noon Sunday after a break in a line. The break had been repaired by 7 p.m. Sunday, but Arkla officials discovered the line had become clogged in a different section.

Gas was put back in the line about 2 a.m. today, but workmen had to visit each house to turn on pilot lights, furnaces and water heaters. Service was not fully restored until 7 a.m. today.

Arkla officials said most of those affected apparently had remained in their homes and had simply gone to bed to keep warm. Others went to hotels or spent the night with friends or relatives.

One unit of the Hot Springs Fire Department stood by until the break was repaired to guard against fires or explosions caused by seeping gas.

The break occurred in an alley in the Oaklawn Park district in west Hot Springs.

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP) — Dwayne Collins, 23, of Fayetteville, was fatally injured today when his car collided with another at the south city limits of Springdale.

Royce Smith, 25, of Springdale, driver of the other car, was treated at a hospital for cuts and bruises, and released.

Police said Collins made a left turn into the path of Smith's car.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus made no mention of integration in his fifth inaugural address Jan. 15, and only one segregationist bill has been introduced so far in the state legislature.

Lee County Rep. W. L. Ward Sr., a native of the cotton-producing Mississippi River delta in eastern Arkansas, where Negro population is heavy, sponsored the bill in the Arkansas House.

The bill would make integrated eating places post signs at their entrances declaring their status. Violation of the proposed law, designed to keep people from being embarrassed by discovering Negroes eating beside them, could result in revocation of the facility's license to operate.

Negroes have staged sporadic sit-in demonstrations against downtown eating establishments since 1960. The last was in November.

Desegregation of the lunch counters was drawn up along the lines of plans used in Atlanta and Memphis.

Few Arkansas Stores Have Desegregated

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Some Little Rock drug, variety and department stores have desegregated their lunch counters during the past three weeks with little fanfare and no reported incidents. The action, which is understood to have been drawn up last summer by about 25 businessmen and Negro leaders, marked the city's fourth step in improving race relations since the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 desegregation decision.

Schools were integrated in 1957 and city buses were integrated a year earlier. Delegates to racially mixed conventions have been admitted to four downtown hotels for several years, as have Negro college football players on teams which came here to play the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

Anything but token integration, however, still is in the future. Only the first step has been taken in desegregation of eating facilities. Only 70 Negroes now are attending integrated junior highs and high schools. White and Negro bus riders generally segregate themselves voluntarily, and individual Negroes still are turned away from hotel registration desks and dining rooms.

But in this city, which saw federal troops called in to guard the nine Negro children who pioneered school desegregation at Little Rock Central High in 1957, there has been very little reaction to further erosion of a way of life.

One department store has been picketed because it desegregated its lunch counter, generally by one or two men carrying signs reading: This store is integrated. These Jews serve Negroes and whites out of the same plate.

But this reportedly is a wildcat picket line not supported by the Capital Citizens Council or any other leading segregationist groups, and it has attracted little outward attention.

Gov. Orval E. Faubus made no mention of integration in his fifth inaugural address Jan. 15, and only one segregationist bill has been introduced so far in the state legislature.

Lee County Rep. W. L. Ward Sr., a native of the cotton-producing Mississippi River delta in eastern Arkansas, where Negro population is heavy, sponsored the bill in the Arkansas House.

The bill would make integrated eating places post signs at their entrances declaring their status. Violation of the proposed law, designed to keep people from being embarrassed by discovering Negroes eating beside them, could result in revocation of the facility's license to operate.

Some Bills Would Help the Taxpayer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Relief for the Arkansas taxpayer appears to be much on the mind of Arkansas legislators in the 64th general assembly.

At least five House members are offering some type of bill which provides some type of income tax relief in the session.

There are also bills which might increase taxes—these include bills which would enable counties and municipalities to increase property taxes, taxes on diesel fuel and drivers' licenses cost.

Just how much tax relief citizens can hope to get is questionable—because state agency appropriations are expected to set records this year.

Already 41 bills making appropriations have been offered for a total of slightly more than $10 million. This is only a fraction of the amount that will be requested during the session.

In the field of income tax, HB 165 would set up a system of withholding for state income tax payments for federal income taxes establish a credit against state

The girl at the desk told Matt that Dr. Stroup was in the Devatron Lab. Matt had a little difficulty convincing the security cop outside the steel fence that surrounded that building that his pass entitled him to admittance. But Bradley's signature did the trick.

Okay," he said, but they've been running tests all afternoon and nobody interrupts them things." It's between tests now. The red light ain't on."

The lab was huge enough to house a dirigible. At the door of a control bunker, constructed along the lines of a bomb shelter, a young laboratory technician examined Matt's pass again.

I want to see Dr. Stroup," Matt explained. He's inside," said the technician, gesturing toward a door that was lined with metal. But he's busy."

He'll talk to me," said Matt. Don't bet on it," the young man replied.

The control shelter was at one side of a barn-like room containing a confusing maze of equipment. Several technicians were in the room, but Matt had no idea what they were doing. Stroup and Rispin were talking at the doorway to another concrete bomb shelter, which Matt decided was the control desk.

Stroup nodded a greeting. You're in the wrong church, Mr. Detective. Riddles of the universe we solve, murders don't concern us."

I've only got a couple of questions to ask, Doctor. Can't you spare 5 or 10 minutes?"

The universe was created in 30 minutes, some astronomers say. And I can do a lot in five."

Apparently he noticed the glint of determination in Matt's eyes. Had he added: I'm going to run this thing once more and after that I may be able to talk for 15 minutes. Will you wait? You might see something you've never seen before."

Rispin cleared his throat. Are you sure security regulations will permit it, Wes?"

If he's got clearance to come in, he can stay."

All right, but it's your responsibility," said Rispin. Stroup was wearing a knitted vest to keep warm in the room which was cool and dry. Probably air-conditioned, Matt decided. The scientist's shirt sleeves were rolled to his elbows and his hair was uncombed and looked as if he'd run his hand through it a thousand times.

I haven't time to explain the income tax payments for the federal income tax paid, and reduce the tax rate for individuals and estates for the first two years of the withholding system.

The bill was introduced by Pulaski County Rep. Glenn F. Walker, who says it will pick up money not being obtained by the state.

Other bills would permit small business corporations to elect to be treated as partnerships for income tax purposes, permit a $10 personal tax credit for dependents, and the taxpayer, permit exclusion of a certain amount of sick pay from gross income when figuring the state income tax, to exempt from state income tax the interest on saving accounts in banks and dividends on deposits in federal savings and loan association in the state and to permit state income tax up to $600 paid by individuals.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Construction of the main unit of the new University of Arkansas science - engineering center at Fayetteville is expected to begin in early February.

Kelley-Nelson Construction Co. of Little Rock will build the facility. The firm's bid was $2,274,774 for the entire center.

Completion of the project, which will house the departments of mathematics, zoology, and electrical engineering, as well as the computing center, is scheduled for the fall of 1964.

The building will be constructed at the south end of the Campus Drive and will include laboratory space for both graduate and undergraduate research and general classrooms and offices.

No Trial for Demonstrators

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The court cases involving 19 persons arrested in Little Rock's last segregationist demonstration at Central High School are 3 years and 5 months old — and none of the demonstrators have been to court as defendants.

Nine of them, however, have been to court as plaintiffs in the $450,000 worth of lawsuits they filed against the estate of the late Police Chief Eugene C. Smith, charging false arrest and rough handling.

These cases were tried last week and a federal judge has taken them under advisement.

Both sets of cases resulted from a run-in with police near Central High on Aug. 12, 1959—the day the school opened with token integration.

Cases against the demonstrators are still pending on the Little Rock municipal court docket. No date has been set for them but Municipal Judge Quinn Glover said a date would be set eventually.

SWC Teams Return to Cage Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five non-conference games in which Southwest Conference teams took part last week resulted in four losses with a Rice victory over hapless Trinity the only triumph.

The league teams try four more non-circuit opponents this week before renewing the conference championship race again Saturday.

Texas Christian plays the University of Houston at Houston and Texas takes on Little Trinity at San Antonio Tuesday night to start the week's competition. Then Texas A&M, the team with the best (10-3) season's record, tries Houston at Houston Wednesday night. And Arkansas invades Tulsa Thursday night.

Last week, UCLA took the measure of Texas Tech two times 83-63 and 103-80. Oklahoma City trimmed Baylor 78-55 Thursday night and then defeated Southern Methodist at Dallas 94-99 in a Saturday night overtime encounter. The lone victory came when Kendall Rhine and his Rice Owls overpowered Trinity 104-75 at Houston.

Saturday night's renewal of the conference race will find Texas A&M and Arkansas playing a day-time game at Fayetteville and night games matching SMU and Rice at Houston, TCU and Texas at Austin, and Texas Tech and Baylor at Waco.

The Rice star, Rhine, held onto first place in the season scoring race last week while boosting his total to 307 points with 134 field goals and 39 free shots. Benjie Lenox, Texas A&M, kept second place with 274 points although idle for the week, and Winston Moore held onto third position with 239 points.

Texas leads the pack with a 4-0 record. Texas A&M is second with 3-1, while Baylor, Arkansas, Rice and Southern Methodist tied at 2-2. Texas Tech is 1-3 and Texas Christian is 0-4.

In season play, Texas A&M has the best record, followed by Texas (8-5), SMU (8-6), Arkansas (7-6), Baylor and Rice (5-9), Texas Christian (3-10) and Texas Tech (1-13).

How the Top Cage Teams Fared

NEW YORK (AP)—Here's how the top ten college basketball teams in The Associated Press poll fared last week:

1. Cincinnati, 15-0, beat Illinois 62-53.
2. Chicago Loyola, 18-0, beat Ohio University 80-72, beat Santa Clara 92-72.
3. Illinois, 12-2, lost to Cincinnati 62-53.
3. Duke, 13-2, beat West Virginia 111-71.
5. Arizona State, 15-2, did not play.
6. West Virginia, 12-4, lost to Duke 111-71.
7. Georgia Tech, 14-1, beat Auburn 69-64, beat Tennessee 73-69.
8. Wichita, 13-5, lost to North Texas State 69-67, beat Air Force 77-45.
9. Mississippi State, 12-4, lost to Memphis State 71-64.
10. Stanford, 12-3, did not play.

Four to Be Admitted to Hall of Fame

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The old-timers group has four new members in Baseball's Hall of Fame today—outfielders Sam Rice and Elmer Flick and pitchers Eppa (Jeptha) Rixey and John Clarkson. They will be formally inducted at Cooperstown, N.Y., Aug. 5, bringing the total membership to 94.

Flick, a left-handed hitting outfielder who averaged .315 with the Phillies and Cleveland for 13 years from 1898 to 1910, now is an 87-year-old resident of Warrensville Heights, Ohio.

Clarkson, a right-handed pitcher who won 238 games for Worcester, Chicago, Boston and Cleveland in the National League from 1882 to 1894, died in 1909. He won 53 games for Chicago in 1885 and pitched 622 innings and won 49 for Boston in 1889. Only 12 others have won 300 or more in the majors.

According to legend, Cleveland once turned down a trade proposal by Detroit by which Ty Cobb would have gone to the Indians for Flick who won a batting title with a .306 for Cleveland in 1905 yet missed a title while batting .378 for the Phillies in 1900.

Rice, a near-miss when he was among those considered by the Baseball Writers' Association, was picked the first time he came under the jurisdiction of the 12-man veterans committee.

Rice, 72, lives in Ashton, Md. where he commented, "I knew it was coming sometime if I lived long enough."

The record books show Rice, a left-handed batter, hit .322 from 1915 to 1934 with Washington and Cleveland (1934 only). He quit with 2,987 hits, only 13 shy of the fabled 3,000 mark. In three World Series with the Senators he batted .364.

A speedy base-runner, he wound up with 351 stolen bases.

Rixey, now 71, lives in Terrace Park, Ohio, not far from the scenes of his greatest triumphs in Cincinnati. From 1912 through 1933 with the Phillies and Reds he won 266 and lost 251 games.

Rixey was a tall (6-foot-6 inches) gangling left-hander with a peculiar motion who seldom walked a batter. He won more games than any other National Leaguer until Warren Spahn came along. It is worth noting that he did all this while working for second division clubs.

A Tragedy Caused by the Ice

Bearcats and Loyola May Play for Title

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

After triumphs in the season's dream doubleheader, Cincinnati's tenacious Bearcats and the run-and-shoot Ramblers from Loyola of Chicago could be heading for a spectacular climax to the college basketball year—a showdown for the national championship.

Cincinnati, unchallenged as the country's top team, showed its poise and doggedness Saturday night at Chicago Stadium in a 62-53 victory over third-ranked Illinois that stretched the Bearcat's winning streak to 33—15 this season.

In the opener of the double bill before a packed house of 20,687, second-ranked Loyola ran its record to 18-0 by whipping Santa Clara 92-72.

In another headliner pairing, fourth-ranked Duke belted sixth-ranked West Virginia 111-71, with Art Heyman scoring 28 for the Blue Devils and Jeff Mullins 27. Sophomore R. D. Craddock again sparked seventh-ranked Georgia Tech to victory, scoring 8 of the Engineers' last 9 points as they downed Tennessee 73-69 and took another step in a bid for their first Southeastern Conference title in 25 years.

Niagara, the nation's only other unbeaten major club besides Cincinnati and Loyola, won its ninth with an 82-65 runaway against Youngstown.

Utah State nipped Brigham Young 70-67 in a match tied 15 times; Pitt got through Dartmouth's zone defense with a rush in the closing stages and won 70-53; Memphis State blew an 18-point lead, then fought back for a 71-65 victory over ninth-ranked Mississippi State; Seattle star Eddie Miles led the way with 24 points as the Chieftains beat Loyola of Los Angeles 64-45.

Seven-footer Mel Counts netted 27 points and pulled down 19 rebounds, pacing Oregon State over Washington; Penn State rapped Bucknell 90-75; Canisius edged Massachusetts 54-52; and Providence overwhelmed Scranton 101-74.

Kansas State tripped Oklahoma State 57-55, preventing the Cowboys from tying Colorado for the Big Eight lead; St. Louis stamped itself as Cincinnati's stoutest Missouri Valley challenger, beating Bradley 71-63; with eight-ranked Wichita smacked down Air Force 77-45.

Auburn kept in the Southeastern scramble whacking Georgia 73-62; St. Joseph's of Philadelphia got 27 points from Tom Wynne in a 79-70 decision over Rhode Island; and Walt Hazard scored 32 as UCLA romped against Texas Tech for the second straight night, 103-80.

Clemson Says No Trouble Will Result

By ROBERT MCHUGH

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP)—South Carolina's top police officer described the situation as well in hand as Clemson College prepared for the enrollment today of its first Negro student.

State Law Enforcement Division agents, in civilian clothes under Chief J. P. Strom, were supplemented by a force of uniformed state highway patrolmen.

Harvey Gantt, 20, the Negro architectural student whose application to transfer from Iowa State University was upheld by federal courts, planned to enroll in the afternoon.

South Carolina is the last state in the union to admit a Negro to its public schools.

In Charleston Sunday, Gantt heard his minister, the Rev. A. R. Blake, warn that misunderstanding and division may come before acceptance. The minister of the Morris Street Baptist Church, where Gantt has taught Sunday School and sung in the choir, said the brotherhood of man cannot be won easily.

Plans called for Gantt to be accompanied to the campus by his father, Christopher Gantt, a civilian mechanic at the Charleston Navy Yard, and Matthew J. Perry, one of Gantt's attorneys.

Gantt was assigned a room in Dormitory B. "A considerable number of foreign students also are assigned to this dormitory," the Clemson administration and state.

Arkansan on the Walker Cup Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Richard Sikes of Springdale, Ark., two-time winner of the National Public Links championship, was named Saturday to the United States Walker Cup team.

He and nine other players, including National Amateur champion Labron Harris Jr. of Stillwater, Okla., will meet Britain's top amateur golfers May 24-25 in Turnberry, Scotland.

Others on the team include Deane Beman of Arlington, Va.; Charles Coe of Oklahoma City; Richard Davies of Pebble Beach, Calif.; Bob Gardner of Essex Falls, N.J.; Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla.; Billy Joe Patton of Morgantown, N.C.; Charles Smith of Gastonia, N.C.; and Dr. Edward Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz.

In Springdale, Ark., Sikes' golf coach at the University of Arkansas said it came as no surprise to him that Sikes was named to the team.

Ellis Bogan, U of A golf coach, said, "It's real great. I thought he'd made it."

Arkansas Is Winner in In-Door Meet

MEMPHIS (AP)—The University of Arkansas edged Mississippi State 45-34 1/2 to win an in-door five-way track meet here Saturday.

Other teams in the meet were Tennessee, 29; Memphis State 24 1/2 and Kentucky, 9.

Both the Razorbacks and the Mississippi State topped four first places but Arkansas piled up seven second place showings to win the event.

Arkansas finished second to Kentucky in the freshman division, compiling 13 1/2 points to Kentucky's 33.

Winners in Texarkana Bowling Meet

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas women bowlers have zeroed in on the $7,000 in prize money offered in the state women's bowling tournament here and one record has already fallen.

The money will be awarded in three divisions of the tournament. The meet is being held on three consecutive weekends. Saturday was the first day of play.

Breaking the record was the W. K. Harris Oil Co. team of Fayetteville, which rolled a handicapped total of 3,041—shading the old record of 3,029 set last year. Saveway Service Station of Conway was second with 2,996.

Rounding out the top five teams were Ramblers of Camden with 2,919; Guy's Dolls of El Dorado with 2,886 and Centerlanes of El Dorado with 2,881. They were among the 80 teams to participate in the tournament before it closes Feb. 10.

More than 400 women were on hand for the first round of the state women's bowling tournament and most braved icy highways to attend the event. An estimated 1,800 women are expected to participate in the tournament before it closes Feb. 10.

NLR Takes Top Spot in Cage Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

North Little Rock took over the top spot in the Associated Press Arkansas high school basketball poll this week.

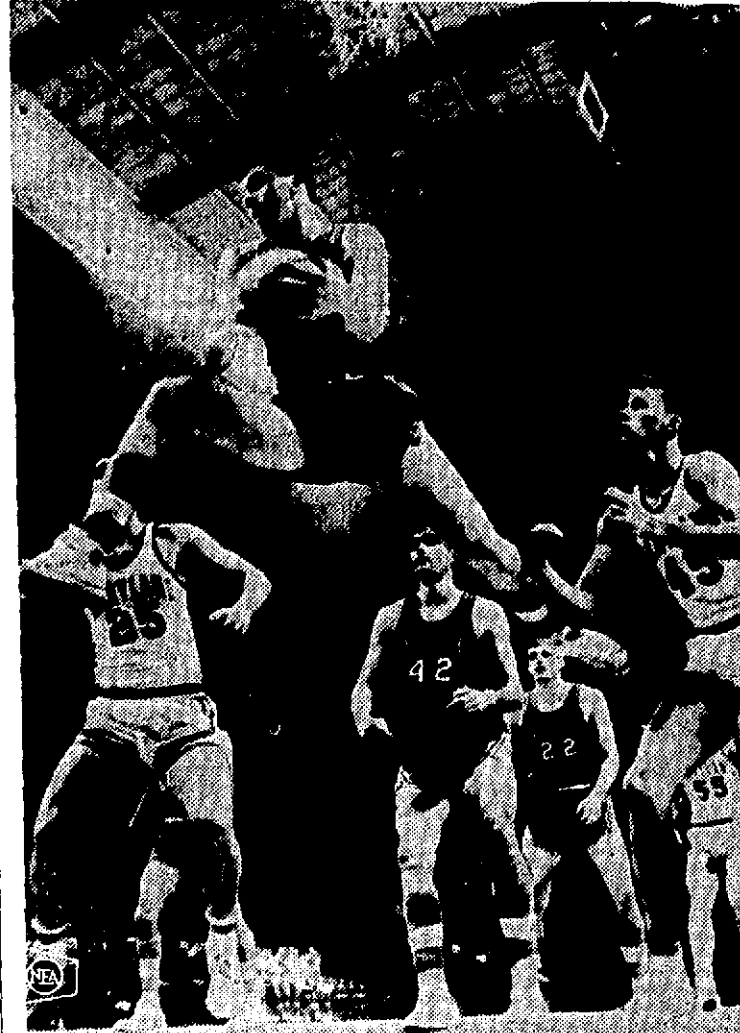

The Wildcats of the Big Nine Conference polled three first place votes and three second place votes for a total of 57 points.

Jonesboro, which has held the top spot once this season, was a point behind. The Golden Hurricane got two firsts. Pine Bluff, which got one first place vote, was in third place with 50 points.

Little Rock Hall was a solid choice for fourth place—getting the spot on each ballot—and finished with 42 points. They followed, in order, Fort Smith, Hot Springs, Little Rock Central, Paragould, Blytheville and Leachville.

Results of the poll, with first place votes in parentheses and total points, based on 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second, etc., at right:

1. North Little Rock (3) 57
 2. Jonesboro (2) 56
 3. Pine Bluff (1) 50
 4. Little Rock Hall 42
 5. Fort Smith 35
 6. Hot Springs 31
 7. Little Rock Central 26 1/2
 8. Paragould 17
 9. Blytheville 13
 10. Leachville 7
- Others, in order: Monticello, Harrison.

REBOUNDER—Bill Cunningham of North Carolina leaps high between Maryland's Jerry Greenspan, 25, and Phil Carlson, 45, to grab a rebound in an Atlantic Coast Conference game at College Park, Md. Charley Shaffer, 42, and Mike Cooke, 22, of the Tar Heels move into the action.

University to Graduate 776

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—The largest January graduating class in the history of the University of Arkansas received degrees here Saturday.

The class was composed of 776 candidates. A total of 330 received graduate degrees and 446 received bachelor degrees. It was the largest number of graduate degrees ever awarded at one time.

Speaker for the ceremonies was Dr. Andrew D. Holt, president of the University of Tennessee, who told the graduates: "No part of the human body is more powerful than the tongue—it can get you elected president or it can cause your downfall."
